Attracting the Partner you Desire, Deepening the Love you Have Mike Cohen, MA and Lisa Evert, M. Ed.

May 21, 2008 - 8:30- 12:00 noon
The Depot – 919 Old Henderson Road, Columbus, OH 43220

The Seminar

Women frequently complain about not meeting or being in relationship with the "right" type of man. Perhaps there is partnership, but no passion. Perhaps there is passion, but no partnership. When they review past relationships they see a pattern of attracting unsatisfying men and/or being in unsatisfying relationships. Understanding the dynamics of masculine and feminine energies offers a powerfully effective way to attract the man you want and deepen the love you have.

Participants will be guided through a process of:

- Identifying your core sexual essence.
- Understanding the three basic types of relationships.
- Learning how to create and maintain sexual attraction through the polarity of masculine and feminine energy.
- Building awareness of how you always attract and elicit your reciprocal as a partner and from your partner.

Benefits

The women who attend this seminar will be exposed to cutting edge material that examines that which is obvious, yet invisible... the ever-present dynamic interplay of masculine and feminine energies. In a fun, safe and supportive environment, participants will be guided into a powerful understanding of these fundamental energies and how they impact who we attract, the quality of energy/conversation/flow of love we elicit from our partners, and the type of relationship this creates. Learn to identify and remove blocks to bringing both passion and partnership into your intimate relationship.

Participants will also have the opportunity to network and expand important relationships in a fun, relaxed and empowering environment.
